Chapter 1 by The Book of Stories

Usuni was trying her best to stack cards as her blue stuffed bear, Calanthe, sat next to her on a baby chair, some of its cloth covered in medical wrappings.

Usuni's prosthetic legs were glued to the floor as her card tower was almost complete.

When she was just about to put down the final card, a voice shouted behind her.

"Boo!" Something wrapped around Usuni and she squealed.

The card tower fell to the floor.

"Aw..man.." Usuni moaned. "I worked hard on that.."

Her eyes met with her silly friend, Richey. Well..with his..eye..

Richey had an empty hole in his left eye socket, but he kept it hidden with his long blonde hair.

Usuni felt his pain. She had lost her eyes to that crazy man ,too.

Well, she had eyes, since a nice girl like her was trying to stop that crazy man..

The curse had awoken us, and we were in the mansion where the man made everyone into dolls and trinkets, or just plain out tortured them, all of the poor souls didn't rest.

Even after their Savior, Aya, left.

Usumi wondered if anyone new would decide to visit thr burnt hell, besides the bald gentleman in the hat.

Usumi shook her head. No one would ever come, right?
